Operation Fuel Elects Three Board Members

Hartford, Conn., -- Operation Fuel elected three new board members during its annual board of directors meeting recently.

The new board members are Chuck Anderson, of Avon, who is a public assistance consultant for the State of Connecticut's Department of Social Services; Daniel Canavan, of Fairfield, who is regulatory counsel for UIL Holdings Corp.; and Camilla Jones, of East Hartford, who is director of Social & Youth Services for the town of Bloomfield. Canavan and Jones previously had served on Operation Fuel's board.

Operation Fuel is a private, nonprofit program that provides emergency energy assistance year-round through its statewide network of fuel banks to lower-income working families and individuals, the elderly, and disabled individuals who are in financial crisis.

Operation Fuel has received the highest rating possible from Charity Navigator, which is one of the nation's leading charity evaluators.
