Operation Fuel Elects Three New Board Members

Operation Fuel recently elected three new board members. The new board members are Denise Rhone, of East Hartford, Legal Education Manager for the Connecticut Women's Education and Legal Fund (CWEALF); Courtney Chan, MSW, of Ellington, Director of Human Services for the Town of Coventry; and Melissa Davis-Hussain, LCSW, of Bloomfield, a Social Worker for the U.S. Department of Veteran Affairs.

Operation Fuel provides year-round emergency energy assistance throughout Connecticut to lower-income working families and individuals, the elderly, and disabled individuals who are in a financial crisis. Anyone who needs energy assistance should call 211. For more information on Operation Fuel, or to make a donation, go to www.operationfuel.org.
