

Operation Fuel Receives Grants from New Haven County Foundations

Operation Fuel recently received the following donations from several New Haven County Foundations for its energy assistance programs:

- The Renee B. Fisher Foundation Fund, a donor advised fund at The Community Foundation for Greater New Haven, has donated $15,000.
- The ERJ Fund, a donor advised fund at The Community Foundation for Greater New Haven, has donated $5,500.
- The Feldman Family Philanthropic Fund, a donor advised fund at the Jewish Foundation of Greater New Haven, has donated $5,000.
- The James H. Napier Foundation, of Meriden, has awarded a $5,000 grant for households in Meriden and Wallingford.
- The Ion Bank Foundation, which is based in Naugatuck, has donated $3,000.
- The Aldo DeDominicis Foundation, of Hamden, has donated $800.

Operation Fuel provides year-round emergency energy assistance throughout Connecticut to lower-income working families and individuals, the elderly, and disabled individuals who are in a financial crisis. Anyone who needs energy assistance should call 211 or visit www.operationfuel.org. For more information on Operation Fuel, or to make a donation, go to www.operationfuel.org.